

Last weekend, saya pergi hiking dengan kawan-kawan di Bukit Melawati. The view from the top sangat cantik, and the weather was perfect. Kami took some photos and enjoyed the cool breeze. After that, we decided to turun and pergi makan at a nearby café. The food was delicious, especially the ayam goreng and dessert. While eating, we talked about our next trip and made some exciting plans. It was such a fun day, and I'm already looking forward to our next adventure!
